

PRESIDENT SENDS QUEST TO HARDING

Asks Whether He Was Quoted Correctly in Statement Regarding French Embassy.

MESSAGE TO FRANCE, ALSO

Wilson Says Grave Inference Is to Be Drawn From Declaration
in Indiana Speech.

WASHINGTON, October 18.—President Wilson today directed inquiries to both the French government and Senator Harding as to the Republican candidate's recent statement that he had been approached "informally" by a representative of France and asked to lead in the formation of an "association of nations."

The inquiry to Senator Harding, which was in the form of a letter, was made public at the White House. At first officials there refused to deny or confirm that an inquiry also had been sent to the French government, but subsequently Secretary Tumulty announced that such action had been taken.

Mr. Tumulty would not say what form the inquiry to the French government had taken nor whether it had been communicated through the embassy here or through the American ambassador at Paris.

Text of the letter.
The letter of the President to Senator Harding follows:
Eighteenth of October, 1920.
My dear sir:

The New York Times of yesterday, Monday, October 17, 1920, I find a statement dated October 16, which purports to report certain public utterances of yours. In it occurs the following: "Harding is replying to criticism of his proposal for an association of nations, he said, in a letter platform speech at Greensburg, Ind., that he already had been approached 'informally' by a representative of France who asked that the United States lead the way to a world fraternity."

"The department of state has always found the government of France most honorable and punctiliously careful to observe all the proprieties of international relations. It is therefore, to draw the inference to which I have referred unless I am misled by you, you actually made the statement."

Very truly yours,
WOODROW WILSON.

That part of Senator Harding's Greensburg (Ind.) speech, which brought forth the inquiry from President Wilson, is as follows:

"I notice in the morning paper that the secretary of state has said that the kind of word which I am proposing can not be made with anybody except the nations now out of the President's hands. I am a Colby speaker for the state department of our own America, and he ought to be president of America, under a United States, an only associate with the central empire and Turkey, and a few other nations, who are engaged in a war. Why, my countrymen, France is asking me informally, asking America, in its own realization of the situation, to lead the way to a world fraternity of nations. England has said through Lloyd George and Earl Grey that they must make the league of nations possible."

The first bulletin sent by the Associated Press from Greensburg, Ind., after the Greensburg speech, "Association of Nations," was as follows: "In the regular story on the speech—Editor."

ANDERSON, Ind., October 18.—A large number of the audience at the Greensburg (Ind.) speech of Senator Harding today left the building at about 10 o'clock, before the speaker had finished his address.

REMONSTRANCE WITHHELD.

Works Board Decides to Rescind
Part of Virginia Avenue.

The board of public works has confirmed a resolution for the resurfacing of Virginia Avenue, from Louisiana street to Shelby street, after a delegation of resident property owners had urged the board to withhold a remonstrance which they had ready for filing. The board also decided to resurface the street to make it a main artery and to have the work completed by March 1. The board rescinded all action on a resolution for the widening of the street at the same time. This project should be started next year, he said. Mr. Lemax, Mark Miller, a member of the board, objected, however, to the widening of the street.

MAKES PLAY 'CYCICAL'

CONTENT OF WATSON'S
HIRAM JOHNSON'S LETTERS
READ BY W. D. HEADRICK.

"BETRAYAL" IS DESCRIBED
(Special to The Indianapolis News.)
BATESVILLE, Ind., October 18.—In a warning to the people of Indiana against James E. Watson, who is seeking re-election as the Republican nominee for United States senator, W. D. Headrick, of Indianapolis, formerly a Progressive, speaking here today at a Democratic political meeting quoted two letters, which he said had been sent by Hiram Johnson, senator from California, to Carl H. Mole, who was a worker for Senator Johnson in this state during the presidential primary campaign.

"The cynical contempt of men like Watson for the people should be made plain, so that if the people desire, they may express contempt through the ballot box for the man who betrays them," is a passage in one of Senator Johnson's letters, in which he says that Watson is a "traitor to the cause of the people."

"I want to make clear to you people," Senator Johnson says in a letter, "that a delegation of Jim Watson, pledged specifically to a particular candidate, was sent to Chicago to stab that candidate in the back, as he is guilty of betrayal as the back, as the first instance, break their faith."

It is pointed out by Senator Johnson that "your delegates with a few exceptions represented not the 150,000 of Wood and myself, but the 50,000 of Wood and myself, and finally the 20,000 of Harding alone, and that Senator Johnson went to Chicago to 'destroy' General Wood."

In another letter to Mr. Mole, Senator Johnson says that he is "not a member of the league of nations, approached a private citizen of a nation which is a member of the league with a request that the United States lead the way to a world fraternity."

"The department of state has always found the government of France most honorable and punctiliously careful to observe all the proprieties of international relations. It is therefore, to draw the inference to which I have referred unless I am misled by you, you actually made the statement."

Very truly yours,
WOODROW WILSON.

OTHERS ALSO ADMIT GUILT

Cases Grew Out of Trouble Between Bottle Blowers' Union and Illinois Glass Company.

Frank Lermineaux, mayor of Gas City, was sentenced to four months in the Marion County Jail today by Judge A. B. Anderson for violation of an injunction order issued in the federal court in the case of Illinois Glass Company against James M. Lermineaux and other members of the employees' department of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association. Philip Burgoon, chief of police of Gas City, was sentenced to jail for two months on the same charge. Both men pleaded guilty. The costs of the case were assessed against Lermineaux.

Other defendants charged with violating the court's order also pleaded guilty. The case against them was taken under advisement and they were ordered to appear in court as long as they added by the injunction order. They were: James M. Lermineaux, William M. Lermineaux, Woodruff, William Easton, David Kirby, Edward Kirby, Charles Call, Samuel Cox and John Roberts.

Judge Anderson read information contained in a letter written by a resident of Gas City, which asserted that the mayor is financially interested in three gambling places in Gas City. He questioned Lermineaux about the assertions in the letter.

A CONSULTATION

City Officials Work Out Plan for Supplying Consumers During Coming Winter.

PRIORITY ORDER IS PLAN

Commercial Users Come Second, Grates and Furnaces Third—Enforcement Up to Company.

What city officials believe will be a solution for the gas problem in Indianapolis for the coming winter, was worked out Saturday afternoon at a conference attended by a special committee of the city council, two members of the board of public works and Samuel Ashby, corporation counsel for the city. The officials decided on a plan for amending the franchise of the Citizens Gas Company to give it the authority to enforce a priority order that would supply gas first to cook stoves, water heaters and lights, including street lights; second, to commercial users, and third, to gas grates and furnaces.

The burden of enforcing the priority list would be on the gas company. The priority order would prevail only during an emergency, when the gas company exceeded the supply to such an extent that pressure must be reduced. Where violation of the order was found by the company, it would have the power to cut off gas for a limited number of days, and to charge a fee for turning gas on again.

Amendment to Franchise.
According to the plan, which is being drafted into an amendment to the franchise by Mr. Ashby, the gas company officials, when an emergency arises, would call upon the board of public works and insert notices in the newspapers. After a given time, the order would then be in effect. At the outset, consumers of gas in the first class would not be affected, but commercial users would be expected to cut off all gas from grates and furnaces.

It was expected that the amendment would be passed by the city council. The amendment would be in effect during the coming winter. The amendment would be in effect during the coming winter.

TEACHER SESSIONS

TO OPEN WEDNESDAY

Between 12,000 and 15,000
Are Expected at Three-Day
State Association Meeting.

NOTED EDUCATORS COMING

Bishop C. E. Woodcock, Dr. David Sneed, Lyman Bryson and Others Will Speak.

Several noted educators of the country will speak at the sixty-seventh annual session of the Indiana State Teachers' Association, which will meet in Indianapolis Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The meetings will draw between 12,000 and 15,000 teachers to the city, and schools in nearly all parts of the state will close Wednesday afternoon to permit the teachers to come to Indianapolis.

The number of teachers who registered for the association meetings last year was more than 12,000. It is expected that the attendance this year will exceed that figure by several hundred. All available rooms in local hotels were reserved several weeks ago by teachers, and for the last few weeks Miss Elsie Green, executive secretary of the association, has been busy listing names of teachers who are coming.

The association will hold general sessions Thursday at 5 p. m. and 8 p. m., Friday at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m., and Saturday at 9 a. m. The association will meet in sections Thursday at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. and Saturday at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. and 10 p. m.

Commission Takes Steps to Northern Indiana Towns.

DONALDSON IS SELECTED

Engineer Will Have Charge of Organization—Penna. Issues Challenge to Governor.

Formation of an organization to distribute coal in Indiana was begun today by the state special coal and food commission. A. L. Donaldson, examiner-engineer for the state board of accounts, will have charge of the organization. Distribution first will be undertaken for the twenty-six cities and towns in northern Indiana where retail coal dealers have filed suit in the Marion circuit court alleging they can not handle coal on the $2.25 a ton margin fixed by the commission.

Jesse E. Eschbach, chairman of the commission, has prepared letters to send to mayors, city councils or town boards in the places affected, in which he inquired whether they agreed to the only solution for the coal problem for the coming winter, a plan of distribution, to be made up as to give preference to members of the first class. The council committee, which is headed by Eschbach, will have charge of the distribution.

COOKSTOVE GAS TO

HAVE NIGHT-OF-WAY

EFFICIENCY ENGINEERS TO STUDY P. O. SERVICE

EVERY COG IN MAIL MACHINE
TO BE UNDER INQUIRY.

PROMISES THREE-YEAR TASK

[By the Associated Press]
NEW YORK, October 15.—Uncle Sam has hired efficiency engineers to investigate the postal service from top to bottom and find out where and how it can be improved. He ordered them to consider construction of post offices as "workshops instead of monuments," and to recommend ways of effecting "economies in cost and expedition in the handling of mail."

Every cog in the mail moving machine, from the rickety rural delivery wagon on the stump-cluttered country lane to the roaring airplanes that carry letters between the bigger cities will be put under the critical eye of the efficiency engineers.

Appointment of Willis B. Richards & Co., a New York engineering firm to supervise this task was announced Saturday by the joint congressional commission on postal service, of which Senator Townsend, of Michigan, is chairman. The commission was created some time ago to recommend means for improving the postal service.

Three years or more may be needed to complete the big job, Mr. Richards said. The start is to be made where the tide of letters and packages is heaviest—in New York city and Chicago. Smaller cities, towns, villages, hamlets and the rural delivery will be examined in order after that.

The civil service, by which many of the postal employees are hired, promoted and discharged, also will be the ways and means of transporting mail between them.

Facilities for moving mail between postoffices and trains are scheduled for early examination. This is now being done by the joint commission, but the practicability of pneumatic tubes, which supplemented the cars in several large cities prior to 1915, will be studied. A tunnel of large dimensions between the Grand Central and Pennsylvania stations in New York, and another connecting them with the main postoffice—also is to be considered. Millions of letters are now moved between these three places daily through densely crowded streets.

Branch Stations. Branch stations, which the joint commission on postal service reported "are now leased at an enormous rental and might be government owned" are to be examined and the advisability of a separate handling of parcel post and first-class mail determined.

"Claim has been made that because of the handling of parcel post mail in bulk with a distribution at terminals might very well be made. The investigation, therefore, would cover the advisability of making this separation. Parcel post mail is at a very cheap rate, while the first-class mail is at a rate that yields the government its highest revenue."

UNION SUITS

Saturday night by Charles S. Allen, secretary of the Wholesale Coal Trade Association of New York.

Mr. Allen said his statement was "based upon a consensus of opinion of members of that association," which, he added, was due to the action of Attorney-General Palmer in calling on the coal operators to take steps to "reduce prices and eliminate profiteering."

BODY FOUND NEAR RIVER.

John Wilson, Age Sixty-seven, Leaves Home for Walk—Dines at Apoplexy. (Special to the Indianapolis News.)
PETERSBURG, Ind., October 15.—John Wilson, age sixty-seven, three miles west of Petersburg, got up from the dinner table yesterday and walked out of his home to White river a short distance away. He did not return, a search was made for him and his body was found on the river bank, where he had been stricken with apoplexy. Mr. Wilson had been dead an hour physicians said.

Change of Color. (Boston Transcript)
"Times have certainly changed," remarked the tall Bostonian. "Once our city was noted as the home of the bluestocking now it is generally known as the headquarters of the Red Sox."

ASKS DIVORCE TO RETURN TO WIFE BELIEVED DEAD

RICHARD MAJORS AND WIFE NO. TWO DIVIDE PROPERTY.

MARRIED SIXTEEN YEARS

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
WASHINGTON, Ind., October 18.—Richard Majors, janitor of the First Methodist Episcopal church in this city, has found that he has had two wives since 1904 and he has filed suit in the circuit court asking for annulment of his marriage to Martha Fiser in 1904, so that he can accept the wife he married shortly after the civil war and who he thought was dead. Mrs. Majors, No. 2, has consented to a separation. The household goods of the couple were sold, and the proceeds divided between Majors and his second wife. The wife then left Washington for Cairo, Ill., where she will live with a son by a former marriage. Majors' complaint for annulment of his second marriage alleges the second marriage was illegal and void for the reason that he had a living wife at the time, although it was unknown to him.

The complaint recites that Majors married Letha Taylor, at Henderson, Ky., shortly after the civil war and that they lived together for eleven years, when she left home while he was working on a boat and went to Louisville. He was informed later, the complaint says, that she had obtained a divorce from him. Still later he says he learned that she was dead. He was not otherwise informed, according to the complaint, until about September 1, of this year when he received a letter from her. She had been living in Atlanta, Ga., for many years and said that she had not obtained a divorce from him.
On receipt of this letter, Majors' complaint says, he and Martha Fiser, agreed they should separate so that he could take back the woman he married years ago. Majors and his first wife are living here.

Howard H. Gross Dead.

CHICAGO, October 18.—Howard H. Gross, president of the Universal Millinery Training League, the Yacht Club of Lake Michigan, and formerly head of the Soil Fertility League, died at his home here, age sixty-seven. Mr. Gross was born in Marathon, N. Y., and came to Chicago in 1871. In 1883 he and G. S. Spaulding and Adrian Anson founded the first tour of a professional American baseball team into foreign countries.

John Burroughs Nature Notes

CAN YOU ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS?

1. What is the last day of summer?
2. Does a calf show fear?
3. How does Mammoth cave affect the blind?

Answers to Previous Questions.

1. How is the fox related to the dog?
The fox belongs to the great order of flesh-eating animals called canivora, and of the family called canidae, or dogs. The wolf is a kind of wild dog, and the fox is a kind of wolf. Foxes, unlike wolves, however, never go in packs or companies, but hunt singly. The fox has a bark that suggests the dog, as have all the members of this family.

2. Is an oriole's nest ever used a second time?
After the oriole is through with its nest, it is sometimes taken possession of by the house wren in which to rear its second brood. The long, graceful cavity with its fine carpet of hair, is filled with coarse twigs, as if one were to build a log hut in a palace, and the rusty colored eggs of the little busybody are deposited there.
3. Why is Kentucky so fertile?
What gives the great fertility to the bluegrass region is the old limestone rock, laid down in the ancient Silurian sea, which comes to the surface over all this part of Kentucky and makes the soil by its disintegration. Its continued decay keeps up the fertility of the soil.

GMC General Motors Trucks

It has been history in the automotive industry that the life of many manufacturers has been limited to a few years of exceptional prosperity. Whenever business conditions cease to be at the peak those makers who have been building their product to meet a popular market are forced from business.

And it is equally true that those makers who have built their product to meet an ideal, and who have marketed it upon its quality, continue to enjoy a permanent and prosperous trade.

The makers of GMC trucks have in ten years of truck building demonstrated the permanency of their business and also enduring quality of GMC trucks.

BARNETT EXPLAINS HIS REPORT ON HAITI CASE

MEANT "PROMISCUOUS" AS WITHOUT DUE PROCESS OF LAW

PRaises THE MARINE CORPS

WASHINGTON, October 12.—Denial that he had intended to convey the impression there had been "promiscuous" killing of native Haitians by United States marines during American occupation of the island between 1915 and 1919 was made here last night by Major-General George Barnett, former commander of marines. In a formal statement which he said was issued at the request of Secretary Daniels, General Barnett said the statement in his letter of October 2, 1919, to Colonel John H. Russell, commander of the marines in Haiti, that "statement of counsel showed me practically indiscriminate killings of natives had taken place," was meant to express "without due process of law" and "not as seems now to be misinterpreted as 'promiscuous'."

Recalled as a Witness.
General Barnett, who left Washington Friday for his new post at San Francisco, was recalled to testify before the board. After a conference with Secretary Daniels he issued his statement, which follows:

"I have consistently refrained from giving out any information and from granting any interviews on the Haitian situation. Any action taken by me, the commander of the corps, was taken only for the good of the corps and the proper performance of duty by the corps to which I am so proud to belong. My official letter of September 27, 1919, covered the case fully, but at the request of the board of the Haitian situation, I made it clear that the statement in my letter of October 2, 1919, as follows, namely, 'a statement by counsel showed me that practically indiscriminate killing of natives, etc.,' was meant by me to express 'without due process of law,' and not as seems now to be misinterpreted as 'promiscuous,' and I further meant, of course, that such statement of counsel would have weight in my mind only when proved, and in order to have him prove or disprove the truth of these statements I wrote the letter of October 2, 1919, to the brigade commander."

"Soldier and Not An Author.
"I am a soldier and not an author. I feel certain that the brigade commander, to whom the letter was written, fully understood my meaning."

"This whole matter refers to only a very small portion of the marine corps on duty in Haiti. My full report shows that duty in general was splendidly performed by the marines."

Service

and the human side of your bank.

We hear much of the "strength," the "stability" and the "resources" of a great many banking institutions. It is right that we should hear of them because they are important to the man who intrusts his funds to the care of a bank.

JUST PEOPLE

But there is a side—a human side of banking—of which we hear all too little. It concerns the young men and the young women on a bank staff who provide the intangible thing called service—who "run" the endless ledger sheets, who cash your checks, who stand at the head of a constant stream of humanity and record the savings or the checking deposits.

They're the people with whom we come in daily contact; whose smile makes the hard road easier; whose happiness becomes infectious; who control in a large measure your friendly feeling toward your bank.

ONLY RECENTLY.

Just recently we celebrated another long step forward. We do it regularly—a gathering of the entire bank organization, from president to the newest messenger. And we had brought home to us again in a vivid way the loyalty, the pride in service and the friendliness of our people.

Our patrons appreciate our people. They talk about them. We are proud of them. We want you to know them better.

They will welcome you as a new depositor in the strong and growing

NEW YORK, October 12.—A message of congratulations and thanks for the stand taken by Senator Harding relative to atrocities against Jews abroad has been sent to the Republican presidential candidate by Judge Gustave Hartman, grand master of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith.

Judge Hartman's message, in part, said: "In behalf of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, I take this opportunity of thanking you for your sincere and courageous words, not only upon this matter, but also in the case of other oppressed peoples."

"I am sure that all high-minded Americans will sympathize much in your debt for your frank condemnation of racial cruelty and lawlessness."

BELGIAN WHO DELAYED

GERMANS IN 1914 DIES

GENERAL LEMAN CHECKED IN-VADEES AT LIEGE.

CAPTURED WHEN CITY FELL

BRUSSELS, October 12.—General Leman, defender of Liege against the German advance early in the war, died at Liege yesterday from pneumonia.

General Leman was governor of Liege at the outbreak of the war. It was his gallant defense of the city against the German attack just as the drive through Belgium was in full swing that held up the advance of the German troops for several days, a delay on which the imperial staff had not anticipated and which told materially against the Germans in the campaign which ultimately resulted in their check at the Marne.

General Leman was wounded in the fighting and was captured August 22, 1914. He was held in a German prison until December, 1917, when he, because of his ill health was released and made his way out of Germany to France by way of Switzerland. After the allied victory he accompanied King Albert in the official re-entry of the Belgians into Liege and received an enthusiastic welcome by the people of his home city.

General Leman was sixty-eight years old. Up to a few months before the war he was head of the Belgian military school. In addition to his notable qualities as a commander he was an authority on Roman law, military architecture and engineering.

TREATY OR NO TREATY

As Dew Motion, on October 1, Senator
Harding said:

I oppose the proposed league, not because I fail to understand what a former member of the Democratic administration has said "we are being let in for," but because I understand precisely what we are being let in for. I do not want to clarify these obligations; I want to turn my back on them. It is not interpretation, but rejection that I am seeking.

That means, of course, the rejection of the entire treaty as it stands.
The senator, in his speech of acceptance, said:

In the call of the conscience of America is peace, peace that closes the gaping wounds of world war and silences the impassioned voices of international envy and distrust.
Heeding this call and knowing, as I do, the disposition of the congress, I promise you an effective peace so quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican President to sign.

This, too, can only mean that the treaty will not be ratified, will not even be submitted again to congress.
It is perhaps the only statement made by Senator Harding that has not been modified or qualified, and that stands today precisely as when first proclaimed. If he does not mean to reject the treaty it surely is not unreasonable to ask that he say so since so much is at stake. Those who are not impressed by the logic of idealism, should weigh very carefully business facts.

The treaty provides that any "exceptional war measures and measures of transfer" with respect to property owned by Americans, or the citizens of our associates, in Germany, "including companies and associations in which they are interested" * * * shall be immediately discontinued or stayed, and the property, rights and interests conferred restored to their owners. Americans reserve the right "to retain and liquidate all property, rights and interests" belonging to Germans in this country or to companies controlled by them.

"The liquidation," so the treaty provides, "shall be carried out in accordance with the laws of the allied or associated state concerned, and the German owner shall not be able to dispose of such property, rights or interests, nor to subject them to any charge without the consent of that state." The treaty expressly validates all the exceptional war measures and measures of transfer employed by the allied and associated powers in connection with German property within their jurisdictions. It is provided that Americans, and their associates, "shall be entitled to compensation in respect of damage or injury" inflicted on their property in German territory "as it existed on August 1, 1914."

All vesting orders, and orders
"winding up businesses of companies," are confirmed, as are "any other orders, directions, decisions, or instructions of any court or any department of the government or any of the high contracting parties." "No claim or action," so the treaty reads, "shall be made or brought against any allied or associated power or against any person acting on behalf or under direction of any legal authority or department of the government of such a power by Germany or by any German national wherever resident in respect of any act or omission in preparation for war." Here are settlements involving hundreds of millions of dollars, settlements that would be upset were the treaty not ratified.

There are the most liberal provisions as to the use of German ports, waterways and airways, including the Kiel canal, provisions under which are conferred rights of the greatest value to our business men. We know how Germany built up her great sea-borne trade by carrying goods on the state railways for export more cheaply than for domestic consumption. In this connection, the following provision is interesting: "The seaports of the allied and associated powers are entitled to all favors and all reduced tariffs granted on German railways or navigable waterways for the benefit of German ports or of any other port of any other power." And it is provided that "Germany may not refuse to participate in the tariffs or combinations of tariffs intended to secure for ports of any of the allied or associated powers advantages similar to those granted by Germany to her own ports or the ports of any other power."

These are but specimens of the great benefits that would come to us from this treaty. Business men may well ask if all are to be thrown away. The result of the policy of rejection of the treaty would be long delay, disturbed industrial and commercial relations, clouded titles, lack of protection to American property in Germany, and the most distressing uncertainty. Is all this part of the policy of Senator Harding?

INTEREST RATES

John Skelton Williams, controller of the currency, is of the opinion that business everywhere has suffered from the high rates of interest on call loans in New York fixed by "a coterie of stock exchange brokers."
These rates, he says, govern the interest charged on brokers' loans in nearly all New York banks. "Power to fix money rates for all, or nearly all, of the banks in New York city," Mr. Williams thinks, "and to change them daily, is a grip on the heart of our commerce." The case is thus summed up:

The direct tendency is to reverse one of the fundamental purposes of the federal reserve act, which is to promote orderly distribution of money throughout the country to meet the needs of commerce and agriculture.
Excessive interest rates offered in New York artificially drive money away from outside communities through their banks, and often leave legitimate enterprises starved or pinched, while feeding speculative movements which may add nothing to real industrial or commercial wealth.

The interest-fixing "coterie" consists of from four to eight men, the stock exchange usually being represented by "the president or one or more" of its governors. These high rates, it is said, "have shut off a large part of the investment demand for securities, which, during the last twelve months, because of these disturbing conditions, have been forced down to the lowest prices reached in four years." Of course, all suffer alike, the country storekeeper and the small farmer, as well as the owner of a large or little manufacturing enterprise. Between October 1, 1919, and August 1 of the present year, 4,000 loans were made at rates of 15, 20, 25 and 30 per cent. There seems to be no remedy except "public sentiment" that "will be strong enough to bring about reforms." Of course, the rates of interest on these loans have a direct effect in raising or lowering prices of stocks on the exchange, and are themselves part of the exchange's machinery. And there can be no doubt that productive industry is sometimes sacrificed to stock speculation. Certainly the few men who establish these rates on coal loans exert a great and dangerous power.

WILSON AND LODGE

In a speech delivered in New York city yesterday, Senator Lodge quoted from the President's address to congress January 22, 1917:

It will be absolutely necessary that a force be organized as a guarantor of the permanency of the peace, and much greater than the force of any nation now engaged or any alliance which has formed, or projected that no nation, no probable combination of nations, could face or withstand it. If the peace presently to be made is to endure, it must be able to resist so securely by the organized major force of mankind.

"That," said Lodge, "shows the President's conception of a league for peace, that it must be backed by the organized major force of mankind," and he concludes that this "means an international force under the control of the league and with all the members of the league obliged to furnish quotas for the international force." It is all very dreadful and terrifying
—as coming from President Wilson.
On June 9, 1915, speaking at the Union College commencement, this same Lodge said:

Turn it back and forth as we may there is no escape from the proposition that the peace of the world can only be secured by a peace and order of a single community as maintained, as the peace of a single nation is maintained, by the force which will make nations are willing to put behind the peace behind peace of world. Nations must unite as men

JOHNSON IN DEFENSE OF HARDING'S STAND

SEES NO AMBIGUITIES IN CANDIDATE'S POSITION.

LEAGUE THE ISSUE, HE SAYS

CHICAGO, October 13.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, in his first public appearance in Chicago since his defeat for the Republican nomination for President in June, Saturday night said the league of nations was "the greatest issue in the United States since the civil war."

The league as the chief issue of the campaign is clearly defined, Senator Johnson said, the Democrats being on one side and the Republicans on the other. He particularly emphasized his statement that "there is no ambiguity in the stand of the Republican party or in the stand of Mr. Harding."

The senator deviated from the speech he had prepared to defend the Republican nominee against "men and newspapers who pretend to be friends of Senator Harding and who assert that he is to take this country into the league of nations."

"For reasons of their own, certain individuals and newspapers may misrepresent and misinterpret his words," I resent these imputations upon the sincerity of the utterances of the candidate and the manifest endeavor in some quarters to distort his plain language.

"In some instances the comment has been mere rank misrepresentation, others, disingenuous interpretation."

Sees No Ambiguities.

"There is nothing ambiguous or uncertain in our candidate's declaration. He has put the league behind him. He wants neither interpretation nor reservations, but outright rejection."

"The men and newspapers who pretend to be friends of Senator Harding and who assert that he is to take this country into the league of nations do him a distinct disservice and pay him a sorry compliment."

In his speech of acceptance he characterized the league as a "military alliance which menaces peace and threatens all freedom." He indicated the war between Poland and Russia as indicating what we would have been let in for, in the language of Secretary of State Lansing, but for the action of the senate and the Polish-Russian war, he said, brought home to us the danger of committing ourselves in advance to causes that we know not of.

"To make doubly plain his meaning, in his speech of acceptance, he said: 'I am opposed to the very thought of our republic becoming a party to so great an outrage upon other people who have no good a right to seek their freedom as we had in 1776.'"

"And yet men and newspapers who claim to be friendly and assert that Senator Harding is 'going into the league' would have him guilty of the very outrage he denounces."

"Eighteen months ago the league was presented as the greatest Magna Carta humanity was ever given, but gradually the mystical veil which enveloped the document was torn aside. When the President returned we were handed a treaty which disavowed the earth, according to secret treaties."

Question of Isolation.

"We are the only nonproliferating nation under a treaty which has given lands and peoples to Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, and we are asked to bear the burden of maintaining the profit of others. They may have the territory which they have gained in this manner, but they shall not commandeer our blood and our treasure to maintain it. I make this plain, not to arouse hostility against any country that has received that territory under the treaty, but to show that under the guise of preserving peace and preserving peace the league of nations, undertaken to guarantee the territorial integrity of every nation that added possessions as a result of the war."

"America broke faith for the first time in her history at the time when President Wilson permitted the robbery of Shantung—the turning of 360,000 Chinese over to Japan. We are different from the peoples across the seas. They are imperialists, they want new territory, new peoples; we are not imperialists and desire no additional lands; no new subject."

Referring to the accusation that the Republican party seeks to fix on the United States a policy of isolation by not entering the league, Senator Johnson said:

"We have been isolated in this country financially, socially or politically. We have only been isolated geographically by the two oceans which God gave us and which President Wilson, or the league of nations, can not dry up. America never failed to respond to a call of disaster and it never will; but let the American people and not the European nations decide when."

BORAH, in New York, Says Test Is Territorial Possession.

NEW YORK, October 13.—Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, speaking of the league of nations at a meeting in the Bronx, Saturday night, said he "suspects" Secretary of State Coby "was correct" in saying in his speech at Springfield, Ill., that Europe will have no league but the league."

"If she can not have a league with Articles 10 and 11 in it, articles which put us under an absolutely compulsory moral obligation to place our army and our navy at the disposal of a council sitting behind closed doors in Europe," he added, "then she will have no league at all. America must submit to what is handed to her or she must be content to have no association or league whatever. That is the effect of the secretary's speech. The secretary is in a pretty good position to know. I suspect he is correct. I have suspected this from the beginning. I have always believed that if Europe could not have a league which would sustain her imperialistic schemes she would prefer to go alone."

The senator said: "A league which would not guarantee Shantung to Japan, which would not mail down Syria and other extensive distributions of territory, which would not assure Mesopotamia, Egypt and millions more as subject peoples to the British empire, would not be acceptable to Europe." These, he continued, require an army and navy to maintain and get it only under Articles 10 and 11.

"We must consent to burden our taxpayers and young men with this fearful task of policing all this territory, or we must go alone."

Referring to "secret treaties" which disposed of territory and handed peoples around like chattels, the senator asserted they were "all written into the main treaty and are to be maintained by the league under Article 19."

"Europe will have no league which will not take care of these barterings, no league which leaves such barterings open to question in the future. Article 19 fixes the standard. 'It is the cardinal tenet of oppression. The test of this new scheme is not justice, not the liberty of peoples, but territorial possession, regardless of how the territory was acquired or what the wishes and aspirations of those who reside upon the territory are.'"

CHARITY HUMANITY WAS EVER GIVEN, but gradually the mystical veil which enveloped the document was torn aside. When the President returned we were handed a treaty which disavowed the earth, according to secret treaties."

Every wrongful, wicked territorial disposition under the treaty of peace, the league and its members are pledged to maintain.

Carrying On

THE refining of petroleum has been revolutionized during the past ten years. Otherwise the present use of automotive machinery would be impossible.

In 1910 the average yield of gasoline from crude was 11 percent, while in 1919 this average had risen to about 26 percent, without in any way, impairing the quality of the product.

This tremendous advance was the direct result of applying the findings of scientific workers to the problems of industry, and in this work the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken a leading part.

The chemists and technical experts who have charge of the manufacturing activities of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) have been pioneers in the scientific refining of crude oil.

Their success is attested by the fact that the Company has been able to produce an ever-increasing volume of gasoline from the petroleum available.

The gasoline problem is important, but it can and will be solved by individual initiative, stimulated by fair and reasonable competition.

In the solving of this problem, the interests of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), the manufacturer of automotive machinery, and the public are one—greatly increased production is essential.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is straining every fibre of its highly specialized organization to increase the quantity of gasoline which may be taken from the crude—to maintain the high standard of quality it has always insisted on, and to do this without disturbing the output of other useful and necessary refined products of petroleum which it must supply.

CRITICISES NEW YORK'S RATES ON CALL LOANS

JOHN S. WILLIAMS SEEKS EFFECT ON SECURITY SHRINKAGE.

FEARS THE HUMAN ELEMENT

WASHINGTON, October 18.—"Unjustifiable interest exacted on demand loans," by New York city banks has been an active contributing cause of the "huge shrinkage" in all security values during the last year, John Skelton Williams, controller of the currency, said last night in a formal statement. He said call money rates in New York were the highest in the world and that "renewal" rates fixed daily by a small "coterie" of stock brokers governed the interest charged on brokers' loans in nearly all New York banks.

"The raising or lowering of the 'renewal' rate on the exchange," said Mr. Williams, "is frequently accompanied by upward or downward movements in stocks and securities, and these movements have the opportunity whether exercised or not of affecting the market for securities, which is so often and directly affected by the call money situation."

Fears the Possibilities.
"I do not, of course, undertake to say that this informal 'money committee' does take improper advantage of their foreknowledge; but there are critics who severely censure the existing arrangements. Certainly all prudent and thinking business men will agree that there is danger in the concentration of such power in the hands of a few persons. Temptations to use this power for individual profit must arise, and human nature is not changed by high position in the financial world."

Power to fix money rates for all or nearly all of the banks in New York city and to change them daily is a privilege which, in the hands of a few persons, is a temptation to use for individual profit. It permits such interference as is possible with the normal flow of the life blood of our commerce, and it permits such interference as is possible with the normal flow of the life blood of our commerce, and it permits such interference as is possible with the normal flow of the life blood of our commerce.

Potent Investment Influence.
"I reiterate the statement previously made that the excessive rates on call money, arbitrarily fixed and tolerated in New York, in my opinion, have been a potent influence in depressing seriously the prices of all investment bonds and standard shares, the shrinkage in which in the last twelve months has amounted, including the depreciation in Liberty bonds, to several billion dollars."

Mr. Williams said that although the renewal rate fixed by the rate committee was not regarded as compulsory by the stock exchange authorities, it nevertheless was admitted by Williams asserted. He cited records which, he said, showed "apparent discrimination" on loans equally well secured and for similar purposes.

For example, he continued, "when the renewal rate for a certain day within the last twelve months was 18 per cent, the report of one particular New York bank showed that on that date this bank was charging on loans for itself and its correspondents 18 per cent, on $1,000,000; 18 per cent, on $750,000; 20 per cent, on $500,000; 25 per cent, on $250,000, and 30 per cent, on $100,000."

Four to Eight Members.
Concerning the "coterie" of brokers which fix the call interest rate, Mr. Williams said inquiry disclosed it usually consisted of "four or eight or more," and that the stock exchange usually was represented by "the president or one or more of its governors."

"The effect of the rates," said Mr. Williams, "is seen when the general managers or executives of railroads or other large corporations visit New York to raise money necessary for the redemption of retiring loans or for the extension and promotion of new business. The bankers and bond-holders who control the high rates paid for call money and corporations whose credit is abundantly justified a 5 per cent, or 6 per cent, interest rate would be forced to pay 7 per cent, or 8 per cent, or 10 per cent, on loans for one year, three years or five to ten years, and are sometimes persuaded by the bankers through whom they obtain the funds that they are doing well to get money even on such terms, because money on call has been advanced often artificially to 12 per cent, or 15 per cent, or 20 per cent, for a few days at a time."

As to a remedy for the situation, Mr. Williams saw only the hope that "public sentiment would be strong enough to bring about reforms" and expressed the belief that the "tremendous responsibilities" of the New York bankers and financiers would sooner or later be realized by those who carry those responsibilities. He said that "some of them non-ethically and conscientiously observe the obligation to the general public now and that they realize the 'direct and distinct duties' which they owe to all communities."

November VANITY FAIR

Vanity Fair is a magazine for men of wide interests and good taste. For men who recognize the social value and the intellectual pleasure of new viewpoints and fresh perspectives on metropolitan life. Every issue will convince you that there is still left in the world a number of people with new ideas, unshaken ideals, and occasional inspirations—most of them contributors to Vanity Fair!

In this Issue:

Sir Gilbert Parker writes of the future of moving pictures and Hugh Walpole records his impressions of new London. Arthur Symonds talks delightfully of Yvette Guilbert, and Giovanni Papini, Simeon Strunsky, Edmund Wilson, Jr., contribute articles and appreciations.

George S. Chappell sorts out some impressions of the new plays, and Stephen Leacock starts a series with some of his boon companions. Charles Hanson Towne installs a set of individual remarks and Thomas Burke writes another thumbnail drama of Limehouse.

Then there are 7 full page portraits, 5 pages of clever drawings, and scores of photographs of celebrities, notable dancers and stars of the screen and stage. Eighteen of the newest cars for the motor section, 4 pages of clothes for the well-dressed man, and articles on bridge, finance and golf.

THE NEW YORK STORE EST. 1853

THIS business is "the lengthened shadow" of an idea. The idea is the one originally laid down by the founders of this business to sell a large volume of goods by marking prices at the closest possible margin—to undersell at all times. Thousands of people are proving the merit of this policy every day. Why not let Pettis help you save?

La Camille Front Lace Corsets

Are a Little Better Than the Best

Compare them with the corset you think best and you will find that they have everything your best corset has and, in addition, three important exclusive features:

The Ventile Back—Insures ventilation and prevents pressure on the spine.

The Underlay—Allows a larger range of adjustment and prevents lines from marking the flesh.

The Lock-it, Nonlifting Clasp—Lies flat and holds fast.

La Camille corsets are made of plain flesh and white coutils and brocades, in a complete line of sizes and models. Prices range from $4.00 to $30.00.

URGES EXPANSION OF FOREIGN TRADE

Senator Harding Speaks to Great Crowd in Coliseum
at St. Louis.

AGAIN DISCUSSES LEAGUE

Says France Has Expressed Wish
That America Lead Way in Forming World Association.

ST. LOUIS, October 18.—Before a crowd which overflowed the big St. Louis Coliseum and greeted him with a roar of cheering and singing which lasted more than half an hour, Senator Harding Saturday night closed his last extensive speaking trip with an address in which he coupled condemnation of embarrassing foreign political entanglements with a plea for extension of the nation's foreign trade and commerce.

Again arraigning the Democratic administration the Republican presidential nominee said that in the last few years there had been too much of "muddling" in Europe and too little of trade co-operation with Latin-American and other lands holding out promise for commercial enterprise.

The night meeting was the windup of one of the candidate's most strenuous days of campaigning, during which he ran the whole scale of issues in a dozen speeches in Indiana and Illinois. The league of nations had a prominent place in his utterances, the nominee replying at length to criticism of his proposal for a new world association. At Effingham, Ill., he quoted a declaration by Stephen Lausanne, the French minister, to the effect that France wished America to lead the way in the formation of world association. Among the domestic issues he discussed was the coal situation.

Asks Republican Congress.

In all of his speeches he asked for a Republican congress to assure team work in the national government and to make certain of a complete reversal of Democratic policies and practices.

His quotation from Lausanne contained the declaration that the French people were ready to give up the league covenant if necessary to insure American's more leadership. "That's the trouble," said Senator Harding, "of one of the nations whom the Democratic nominee says we are trying to desert."

Besides the 15,000 persons who won in the scramble for seats in the Coliseum, hundreds were in the aisles and open space and another great crowd blocked the streets about the entrance.

Presenting the candidate, Senator Spencer said there were three times as many gathered outside as had been able to get in.

After he had closed his speech in the Coliseum, the candidate made a short speech to the crowd outside, reiterating his objections to "one-man government" and renewing his promise that during his presidency there would never be a surrender of American sovereignty to any council of foreign powers.

Questions Interrupt.
In the midst of the Coliseum speech a man in a distant gallery shouted, "Tell us your two positions on the league of nations." Cries of "put him out" followed, but the nominee replied: "No, don't put him out. We're only going to put the Democrats out at Washington in this campaign."

As the speaker started to outline his views on the league another man interrupted with a question about the Hitchcock reservations, and although the senator shouted to the police not to molest the speaker, they took him in charge and hustled him toward the doorway.

Continuing his league discussion, Mr. Harding gave a promise that he never would submit the treaty to the senate "with Article 10 in it," and the crowd cheered again and again. Another man asked what he would do with the document without Article 10 included and in reply the candidate outlined his purpose to organize a world association in keeping with American institutions.

"It's perfectly futile," he said, "to talk about the league. The league has been rejected. All that is good in it might well be preserved. My objection to the league is that it creates a supergovernment and the government of the United States is good enough for me.

"I want America to make the most of its leadership, but I want it to be free. I don't want it mortgaged to the old world."

The extension of American banking and merchant marine facilities, coupled with more efficient development of an inland waterways system, were advocated by Senator Harding as steps toward development of the nation's foreign trade.

Foreign Commerce.

Mexico, South America, Asia, Africa, Australia were designated by the Republican nominee as districts offering inviting opportunities for American foreign commerce. The establishment of an international financial district and the extension of the merchant marine would aid in developing trade with the more distant parts of the world, he said, while a co-ordinating policy of inland waterways development would open the way to Mexico and South American republics.

Quoting statistics of the nation's foreign trade Senator Harding said that it was apparent Europe could not be expected to offer in the future the same market for American goods that she provided before the world war. The development of markets in other parts of the globe was paramount desirable because of the demand for manufactured goods which America could easily supply. He cited the British expansion of foreign financial connections as an example of what might be done in that direction by enterprising nations.

"Our own government has signally failed to extend its industrial and commercial enterprises anywhere like the sort of encouragement or support which has been given British industries by the British government," said the nominee. "So far as we properly may, we should co-ordinate all the facilities of finance, domestic and overseas, transportation, tariff policies, trade agreements of consolidated credit, in order to direct our foreign trade into new fields."

In the effort at expansion of foreign trade there must be consideration for two particular instruments of that trade. There must be expansion of American banking facilities and the opening of American trade routes under the American flag, in the interest of American trade.

Talks of Waterways.

"We need once more to open the great waterways as for avenues of commerce. Unrestricted competition between the railways and waterways is good for neither and thoroughly bad for the country as a whole. We might well learn a lesson from Europe, which before the great war had developed its waterways system to the point where they carried an astonishing proportion of traffic."

"The Mississippi river is the natural gateway to the sister republics south of us. I foresee at no distant time under a wise and steadfast foreign policy a new era in our relations with Mexico, a new epoch of development for all regions of the Caribbean and beyond. We will not seek any thing like the privilege of mere exploitation. It must be our aim to give generously of opportunity and advantage to those by whose development we would hope in reasonable part to profit. We must make our friends and neighbors of Latin America, all the way from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn, understand and believe that we seek no advantage for ourselves that shall not apply at least an equal measure of advantage for them."

"Convinced as I am that the Panama canal has a peculiar concern to the people of our central valley it has always been a matter of profound regret to me that the canal should not have been made one of the great free highways of American trade. I can not but feel that the policies of the Democratic administration in administering the canal has failed sadly in realizing its possibilities."

by Henry G. Reed, a brother, from Louis Bryant, Reed's widow. Reed had made several visits to Russia during the soviet regime. Since his latest departure from this country last year relatives here had received conflicting reports regarding him. One was to the effect that he had been executed in Finland as a soviet emissary, and another that he had been imprisoned in Russia.

John Reed, for the last ten years, was prominent as a writer in magazines and as a war correspondent. In addition he wrote a number of books on the world war and problems arising from that conflict. In 1915 he was in Russia as a socialist delegate, and on his return it was announced that he had been appointed Russian consul in New York. Recognition was not accorded him by the United States government, however, and later dispatches from Petrograd said his credentials as consul had been canceled.

Reed's pronounced views on communism led to his arrest on several occasions, and it was alleged that he made seditious utterances while the United States was engaged in the war. Charges of sedition brought against him were dropped, however, in April, 1919.

He sailed for Russia during the autumn of the same year, and subsequent to that time was indicted at Chicago for violation of the state syndicalism law. Later he returned to the United States and once more went to Europe, it being reported he had been found in the coal bunker of a ship in a Finnish port. The state department at Washington denied he had an American passport and it was charged that he was traveling with forged papers.

On August 23 it was reported he had been sent to Moscow to represent American Communists.

Reed was born at Portland, Ore., October 22, 1897. He received the degree of bachelor of arts at Harvard University in 1910, and immediately began his career as a writer. He served at various times on the editorial staffs of magazines.

Talks with "The Man Who Works"

"Folks here in Indianapolis are lucky," remarked a young Indianapolis man to his friend, as they walked down Illinois street the other day.

"How's that?" asked the other, who had recently moved to the city. "Outside of remarkable climate and splendid natural resources I don't see how you are luckier than other cities."

"Well, we are," replied he, smiling broadly. "You've heard of Trustees System Service, haven't you?"

"Oh, just in a general way. It's some kind of money-lending proposition, isn't it?"

"Call it that if you like. But I think it's one of the most remarkable organizations in the country. Do you remember last winter when my wife and child were sick and I hurt my arm and couldn't work? Well, I got head over heels in debt—owed every one. Know who pulled me out? Trustees System."

"I went to their office and told their manager my troubles. Soon I arranged for a loan at their remarkably low interest rate, figured by the year, just as in any national bank. I paid the money back in small monthly installments, and they allowed me 3% savings interest on these partial payments."

"Do you know the young man next door to me? He wanted to paint his house, but didn't have the cash. I sent him to Trustees System and he got the money. Then there's this chap down at the office. He needed cash in a hurry for insurance. Trustees System did the same for him. Believe me, it certainly is a great organization, and Indianapolis is lucky to have one of their offices."

"You're certainly right," replied the friend. "Say, I've been wondering where I could get money to buy coal. Do you think they'll loan it to me?"

"You've got a good job and a good reputation," was the answer. "That's what counts with them. Come along with me to their office at 231 Massachusetts Avenue, and we'll see how fast they take care of your need."

HAYS PREDICTS BIG REPUBLICAN VICTORY

CLAIMS AT LEAST 578 ELEC-TORAL VOTES.

ALL OF NORTH AND WEST

CHICAGO, October 18.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, told newspaper men in an informal talk here yesterday that Senator Harding was assured of 275 electoral votes, and probably would receive 55 per cent of the popular vote.

After spending the day talking by telephone to campaign managers in every western state, Mr. Hays said he was convinced that "Senator Harding would carry every northern and every western state and had a good chance in Tennessee, Oklahoma and other border states."

Western states, which heretofore have been classed as doubtful now definitely are Republican, he said.

In the senatorial race Mr. Hays predicted that the Republicans would hold everything they now have and would gain by carrying Maryland, South Dakota, Kentucky, Colorado, California, Nevada, Arizona and Oregon. Every Republican senator running for re-election is certain of victory, he said.

Issues Formal Statement.

In a formal statement issued early in the day Mr. Hays said "The forward march to Republican victory moves on irresistibly."

"The reason," said the statement, "is summed up in two words—'America first.' That means more than the preservation of our constitutional independence against super-government abroad. It means more than the protection of constitutional functions against White House theft of authority at home. It means that the pressing domestic problems of 'America first' are in the public mind and that these domestic problems are again to have progressive and constructive and effective attention at Washington."

Democratic Failures.

"We must and shall do our whole duty by the world's peace—with an eye to 'America first.' But the electorate refuses to forget that the Wilson league—a contract for international war parading in the clothes of peace—is only one of a score of utter failures and betrayals which November's solemn referendum must settle. It refuses to keep its eyes riveted on Europe. It refuses to ignore the driving domestic problems, close to every hearthstone, before which the Democratic party has stood impotent and in confessed bankruptcy."

"It is thinking of America first and all the accumulated work in Washington which can not much longer be denied effective attention if 'America first' is to last."

Leviathan Bids Rejected.

WASHINGTON, October 18.—The shipping board has rejected a bid of $2,000,000 for the liner Leviathan, made by J. W. Thompson & Co., Philadelphia. Chairman Benson said it was entirely inadequate. A request from the department of labor that the steamer be turned over to Ellis Island for use in housing emigrants also has been refused, the chairman said, as it was thought unwise to risk the wear and tear incident to such use of the vessel.

The PLAYING of DUO-ART REPRODUCING PIANO CANNOT BE DISTINGUISHED FROM THE ACTUAL PLAYING OF THE ARTIST

ECAUSE it is the actual playing of the artist himself. It is his touch, his tone, his technic, his personality, the faithful reflection of his own musical soul.

The only difference between the playing of the artist in person and the reproduction of his playing on the Duo-Art Piano, is that in the latter instance you do not see the artist who is playing. But you feel his presence and his personality—you know it is the artist himself who is playing, for you recognize his performance, his characteristics of tone, dynamics and interpretations.

Personality is the characteristic of human kind and is Nature's way of differentiating one individual from another. No machine can acquire it of itself—it must be instilled into it by the person himself. And that is just what happens when an artist plays for the Duo-Art Piano. The marvel of this remarkable instrument lies in the fact that it is capable of, and does, photograph not only the playing of the artist, but also his personality with unerring accuracy and completeness.

When you place a roll made by Harold Bauer into the Duo-Art Piano to be reproduced, you know the music that comes forth from this great instrument is the actual playing of Harold Bauer. There is absolutely no room left for doubt after you have heard the performance. The same is true of the playing of the other famous pianists who make records for the Duo-Art.

The development of the Duo-Art Piano is of such a new and far reaching character that its tremendous significance and importance to the musical world has perhaps not yet been fully grasped, except by the great artists whose best efforts it so faithfully reproduces.

The Duo-Art presents a triple personality. It is first a remarkable reproducing piano.

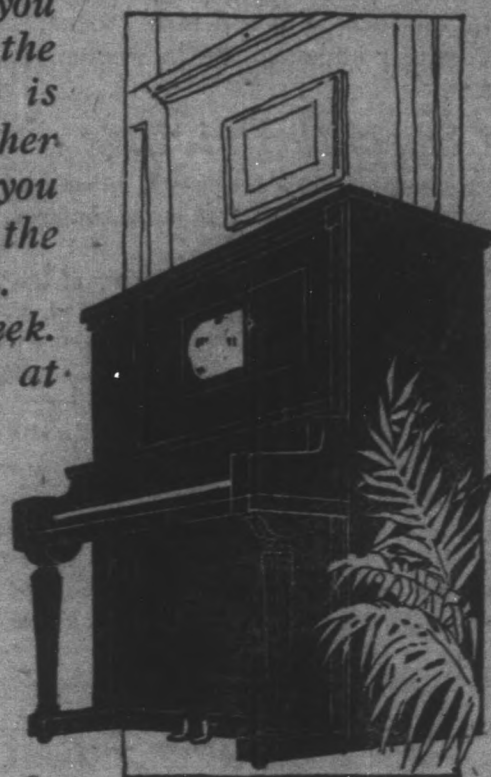

Second, it is a perfect player-piano with improved and exclusive devices which enable you to play your favorite music with your own musical taste and interpretation.

Third, it is a regular piano of beautiful tone and superb action for hand playing.

We want the public to hear this instrument. We want every lover of music to come to this store and have the wonders of the Duo-Art Piano demonstrated to him.

We want to see if you can tell whether the Duo-Art Piano is playing or whether the performance you hear is that of the pianist in person.

Come this week. Demonstrations at any hour.

The DUO-ART PIANO is made only in the STEINWAY, STECK, STROUD and the famous WEBER models.

MAC SWINEY PROMISES TO CONTINUE HIS STRIKE

IF REVIVED HE WILL RESUME STARVATION PROGRAM.

CONTRACTS A SLIGHT COLD

LONDON, October 15.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, passed a very good night at Brixton Prison, according to a bulletin issued early today by the Irish Self-Determination League. It is said he slept well, but seems to have caught a slight cold. Every precaution, however, is being taken to prevent its development.

In a later bulletin the league says a doctor has told MacSwiney that his condition is becoming more precarious. When he becomes unconscious, the doctor is said to have declared he would feel bound to do all he could to save the lord mayor's life, and would feed him as far as he could while he was unconscious. MacSwiney is quoted as saying that if any attempt was made to feed him under such conditions he would resume his hunger strike as soon as revived.

"In his present state of extreme weakness," the bulletin says, "the lord mayor will only prolong his torture. He wishes it known, however, that he is perfectly happy."

ISSUE UP TO CARDINALS.

Holy Office to Decide Whether "Strikers" are Committing Suicide.

ROME, October 15.—Pope Benedict, according to information obtained here, has referred the problem of the status of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, of Cork, and the other Irish hunger strikers to the congregation of the holy office.

Many urgent appeals to make some pronouncement regarding the case of the lord mayor of Cork and the other Irish hunger striking prisoners have been received by the pope. These appeals are divided between opposite viewpoints, and implore the pontiff to reach diametrically opposed decisions on the question whether the death of the prisoners as a result of their hunger strikes would be suicide.

Pope Benedict has carefully and personally examined all the many documents submitted to him, citing examples and opinions intended to support the claims of the opposing sides, and has discussed the situation with learned cardinals and other prominent figures in the church, but it is indicated, has found them holding widely divergent opinions. He, therefore, it is stated, has laid the problem before the congregation of the holy office which settles questions of faith and morals, and judges heresy.

This is the oldest congregation of the Roman church. It was created by Paul III in 1542, and originally was called the holy inquisition. The present pontiff modified it and added to it the congregation of the index, which has to do with literature.

The pope is prefect of this congregation and Cardinal Merry Del Val, secretary. To the secretary will be submitted the opinions and investigations of those concerned in the case. These reports will be entrusted to one of the cardinal deacons, the congregation, who will present his report to a plenary meeting of the holy office, which also includes Cardinals Gasparri, the papal secretary; Pomilio, Van Rossum, Fruhwirth, Hillot, and others.

The process in matters coming before the congregation is as follows:

HUNGER STRIKER DEAD.

Fitzgerald Had Gone Without Food Sixty-Eight Days.

[By the Associated Press]

CORK, October 15.—The first death among the hunger strikers in Cork Jail occurred last night. Fitzgerald died at 9:45 o'clock, having fasted sixty-eight days.

The condition of Fitzgerald and Murphy had become so grave yesterday that, with the consent of the other hunger strikers, the prison doctors were permitted to give Fitzgerald medical treatment. A Cork specialist also was called in.

Fitzgerald was arrested for shooting Private Soldier Jones outside Fermoyle church on September 7, 1919.

Stanley S. Wile, Under Arrest, Took Bichloride of Mercury.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., October 15.—Stanley S. Wile, age thirty, who took bichloride of mercury tablets about ten days ago while on a train en route to Evansville from Indianapolis where he had been arrested, died at a local hospital early today. He was wanted here on a charge of passing forged checks. Wile's death had been expected for several days. He served overseas in the world war and took a leading part in a play given here several weeks ago by the American Legion. His home was in New York and his mother came here several days ago to be with him.

PROGRESS AND REACTION IN STRUGGLE—GOMPERTS

Labor Leader Addresses Immigrants and Issues Statement to United States Citizens.

NEW YORK, October 15.—One of the greatest problems before the United States "is the conflict between the concepts of freedom and progress as against tyranny and reaction," Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, said in a speech at the Ellis Island immigration station yesterday.

"We to him who now attempts to foster tyranny and injustice in the masses of the people of the United States," he added.

Mr. Gompers' statement was addressed to American citizens after he previously had spoken to immigrants. He told those awaiting deportation that "if there was a legitimate objection" to their landing in the United States, they should have been told on the other side.

"They may speak of leadership in the world and in-world affairs," he said to the American citizens, "but if we admit these people we can not leave the countries from which they come without co-operation."

"As to immigration we do not wish to close our doors, but I would call your attention to the fact that within recent weeks quite a number of employers of labor have come to the commissioners of immigration and told them not to send more immigrants to their centers, as they could not absorb them or furnish them employment. This is a problem with which we will have to deal. We must meet it."

An unprecedented flood of immigration from Europe to the United States is imminent, Mr. S. L. Gullick said in a speech here yesterday. Dr. Gullick returned from Europe recently after a tour of investigation for a committee on legislation of the federal council of the Churches of Christ in America. At some ports in Europe he said, American consuls are approving passports of only 10 per cent of those desiring to migrate to this country.

Reviewing the work of a committee of which he was secretary, which he explained is seeking better relations between the United States and Japan, he said the American Federation of Labor would adopt an unjust policy if it were successful in restricting immigration. For the sake of the poor of Europe, he added, as many immigrants "as we can wholeheartedly assimilate and employ" should be admitted when conditions are prosperous.

Question of General Strike.

CHICAGO, October 15.—Correspondence between Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and the Chicago Federation of Labor, made public yesterday, revealed divergent views on the question of the advisability of a general strike if America, or any other country, gave aid to Poland.

The Chicago Federation some time ago wrote Mr. Gompers that it was in favor of a general strike if aid was given Poland and asked his views on the matter.

In reply, Mr. Gompers said that "there was no person or group of persons who had power to call a general strike" and urged the Chicago organization to look further into the question before making any decisions, because "it may know nothing of conditions in Russia or Poland."

The letters were discussed at yesterday's meeting of the federation and Secretary F. N. Neckels wrote

WARREN G. HARDING ENDS INDIANA CAMPAIGN TOUR.

SPEECH AT TERRE HAUTE

(By Edward T. Buchanan, Staff Correspondent of The Indianapolis News)

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., October 18.—Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for President, closed a two-day campaign in Indiana here Saturday afternoon with an address to an audience of 15,000 persons, packing Ohio street from Ninth to Seventh streets.

Earlier in the day he spoke from the rear platform of his special train at Greencastle and Brazil, from Brazil to Terre Haute. In his speech here, he said, in his speech here, he said, "I believe in the loyalty of the people of Porto Rico to the United States, and in the loyalty of the United States to the people of Porto Rico."

SPITE FENCE CASE HEARING

Court Withholds Decision in Injunction Brought by Negro.

Judge T. J. Moil, in superior court, Room 5, Saturday took under advisement proceedings in contempt of court against Mrs. Mary Grooms, 1746 Boulevard place, brought by Dr. Lucien Meriwether, a negro dentist, who alleged Mrs. Grooms had violated the court's temporary injunction order against the building of a "spite fence" between her property and that of the negro.

Attorneys in the case will present arguments on the contempt of court charges next Saturday.

The case is the outgrowth of efforts of residents to eject Dr. Meriwether from the house he had bought in the neighborhood in which white people live. After a fence more than twelve feet high had been built on one side of his property, a similar fence was started on the other side, but before it was completed, it was stopped by injunction proceedings.

NOTED SPEAKERS FOR LEAGUE ARE COMING

SPECIAL TRAIN TO STOP IN CITY
WEDNESDAY EVENING.

WOMEN ARE IN THE PARTY

The Democratic speakers' bureau was notified today that a "Pro-League special" train, carrying some of the best known speakers of America in favor of the league of nations, will stop in Indianapolis Wednesday evening and the speakers will be available for a big meeting here. The train will arrive in Indianapolis at 8:20 p. m. and will leave at 11:00 p. m. Arrangements for the meeting place have not been made, as it is not known whether Tomlinson hall will be available that night.

Among the speakers will be New-son D. Baker, secretary of war; Charles W. Whittier, who was in command of the famous "lost battalion"; Professor Irving Fisher, of Yale; Herbert Parsons, who formerly was prominent in the Republican party; Henry Van Dyke, formerly minister to Belgium; Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Lucile Ames Mead and others.

The special leaves New York tonight and will make its first stop at Pittsburgh Tuesday at noon.

Every woman's and misses' tailored SUIT REDUCED!

Not merely reduced—but the price cutting extends to great depths

It matters not what suit you choose, you save. If some desire fired you with determination to pay regular prices here, you would fail to carry it through.

There are no regular prices—

Whether you choose a good, plain, inexpensive suit or a marvelous costume tailor—

Whether you choose a more conservative model or an extreme novelty— Whether you choose a French room suit—a Milgrim suit or any suit—it's yours at a big saving.

When you reflect that this is a sale of suits with the quality ideals of The House of Fashion back of them—

When you consider that the saving is available in practically at the start of the season—

You'll realize how unusual this sale is.

The values and assortments are particularly gratifying in these three price groups—

SIZES 7 TO 18 YEARS

These are nationally famous suits, backed by an INSURANCE POLICY that means absolute satisfaction or your money refunded.

You are no doubt familiar with Wear Pledge suits; their merits have been brought to the attention of millions through the medium of the Saturday Evening Post and other magazines of national circulation.

The maker had a surplus from which we were permitted to choose at far below his usual wholesale cost.

We bought an enormous quantity. We know the clothes, for we've sold hundreds of Wear Pledge suits, and have never yet to hear anything but good words for them.

The trousers of every suit have a live leather belt.

Every suit has extra strength in vital parts.

The workmanship, linings and trimmings are worthy of the very highest praise.

This is the most severe blow that has been given boys' clothing prices in many years. Sale prices, $15.85, $13.85 and$10.85

Ascribe to the warm weather the fact that you can get

Smart new coats For women $24.75 and misses

Such an amazingly low price as this on coats of such style and excellence as are displayed in this sale, creates wonderment as to how it came about.

The explanation is short and simple—a maker who is known among merchants for his superior quality products, became alarmed when a season of warm weather found him with a big surplus of coats on hand. We felt that here was our opportunity.

We obtained 300 coats at an immense concession. We pass the good fortune on with the result that here is one of the greatest coat sales we have ever held.

Notice that the coats are of the most favored materials; that many are silk lined and many have fur collars.

MURAT TEMPLE HONORS THE PAST POTENTATES

FORMER OFFICERS IN CHARGE OF SHRINE CEREMONIAL.

DELEGATION FROM RICHMOND

Shriners came from all parts of the state today to attend the ceremonial given by Murat temple in honor of the past potentates, Chalmers Brown, Alexander W. Thomson, Elias J. Jacoby, Denton T. Billingsley, Charles Meyer and Leon T. Leach. Included among the guests of honor was Charles F. Meyer, who is a charter member of the temple and has been treasurer since its organization. In 1915, it was planned to give special recognition to nobles who have been Shriners for twenty years or more. These, to the number of more than 200, had listed their names with Charles S. Barker, the recorder. The program called for an entertainment in the auditorium of the temple in the afternoon, including pictures of the imperial council meeting in Indianapolis in 1915, songs by the chapters and oriental features. The Moslem feast, prepared by the banquet committee, was set for 4 p. m.

Out-of-Town Delegation.

Among the out-of-town visitors was a delegation of nearly 100 from Richmond who came by special cars. They were members of the Zem Zem Club of the Wayne county oasis, led by C. E. Duffin and Frank Holland, who planned the big celebration at Richmond in September which was attended by all the uniformed bodies of Murat temple.

The ceremonial proper will start promptly at 6 o'clock this evening with the special rites in honor of the past potentates, who, after the preliminary ceremonies, will be in charge of the ritualistic work. The officers for the evening are: Elias J. Jacoby, potentate, assisted by Past Potentates, A. W. Thomson, D. F. Billingsley and Charles Meyer; Chalmers Brown, chief rabban; Alexander W. Thomson, assistant rabban; D. F. Billingsley, high priest and prophet, and Leon T. Leach, oriental ruler. Acting in the work will be the uniformed organizations of the temple.

As the lists were to be open until 1 p. m. it was expected that the class to make the pilgrimage across the Mecca would number more than 200.

Reception Committee.

The reception committee included the following:

Ohio L. Wade, chairman; Eugene A. Cooper, vice chairman; Robert H. Bryson, Paul

The regular fall ceremonial of the temple will be held November 19 immediately following the convocation of the Scottish Rite. It will be the last ceremonial of the year and preparation for it already has been begun.

SEES NEW POLITICAL ERA.

Farmer-Labor Candidate for President Speaks at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, October 18.—Parley P.

Christensen, presidential nominee of the Farmer-Labor party, in a speech here Saturday evening, predicted that a new political movement would sweep the entire country like a prairie fire. The main issue of the election, he asserted, was the relationship between the producer and the consumer.

In attacking the capitalists and their earnings since the United States government could have made enough money, had the cotton miller, the mines and textile industry been taken over by the government, to refund the purchase price of these three branches of industry, Mr. Christensen then quoted the premier of Canada as having remarked to him personally that the Farmer-Labor party would control the Dominion of Canada by 1925.

In addresses at Alton and Granite

City, Ill., in the afternoon, Mr. Christensen, a professor, and asserted some of the large industries had stolen the election of 1916 from himself, and that the declaration of war was a result of the election.

HIT BY BASEBALL: DIES.

Charles C. Middlebrook, 15, Ran between Pitcher and Catcher.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

CLINTON, Ind., October 18.—

Charles C. Middlebrook, age fifteen, died Saturday as a result of being accidentally hit on the head by a baseball. He ran between Homer Mc-

Inters, pitcher, and the catcher, while they were warming up before a game between Monticuma and Hilldale High Schools. The boy was unconscious several hours after the accident and died twelve hours later.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George brothers and two sisters survive.

RECEIVES $60,000 ALIMONY.

Mrs. Edna Cullison, of Valparaiso,

Receives Divorce.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

VALPARAISO, Ind., October 18.—A divorce was granted Mrs. Edna Cullison, of this city, from Albert T. Collison, a banker of Danville, Ill., by Judge Haly in the Jasper circuit court Saturday. Cullison was also ordered to pay to his wife $60,000 in alimony. The attorney's fees amounting to $5,000, expenses of $3,900, and to send a son to a military school and a daughter to the university. After the decree was granted

Cullison decided the plaintiff $25,000 of late in Porter county to settle the alimony.

that Warren T. McCarty, Republican candidate for Governor, indorses the present tax law. He condemned the law as an "old man of the sea," fastened on the back of the people, Dr.

Carlton B. McCulloch, Democratic candidate for Governor, in a speech

here Saturday evening, said the law is the most nefarious statute ever placed on the books of Indiana or any other state.

"This law," he said, "places a penalty on honesty and premium on dishonesty and trickery." He asserted that Warren T. McCarty, Republican
